

Using a web-based platform on the intranet to support nurses and allied health professionals in implementing evidence in clinical practice

Antoinette Conca, MNS, RN

Scientific collaborator

Departement of Nursing development and research

University Hospital of Berne, Switzerland

Introduction

- improve infrastructure
- promote access to research resources
- maintain life-long learning
- manage knowledge

Strategy and concept for the further development of the service and research in the area of nursing and allied health professions at the University Hospital Berne 2005-2009

HOPITAL UNIVERSITAIRE DE BERNE

Corporate strategy

Highly qualified health services
Leading the field medically and cost-effectively (UZ 2)

GOALS

Highly qualified services in nursing and allied health professions

Multi-professional and interdisciplinary effective, efficient, adequate, qualitative highly qualified nursing care and therapy at affordable costs

Strategy

Central Nursing development and research

Further DEVELOPMENT

RESEARCH

Competence development

Continuing education expertise
Methodological competence:
EBNP/EBP/research
Clinical Leadership
ANP, ANP-Team approach

Highly qualified personnel

Infrastructure

Highly qualified infrastructure

Clinical field development

Team development/clinical Leadership
Acting based on evidence
Good clinical practice

Research

Local, national and international relevant clinical research

Concept academic career development

Nursing and allied health professions

Decentralized Departments and Clinics

Competence development

Continuing education expertise
Methodological competence:
EBNP/EBP/research
Clinical Leadership
ANP, ANP-Team approach

Highly qualified personnel

Infrastructure

Highly qualified infrastructure

Clinical field development

Team development/clinical Leadership
Acting based on evidence
Good clinical practice

Research

Local, national and international relevant clinical research

Concept academic career development

Nursing and allied health professions

Committee Nursing development and research

Competence promotion

Infrastructure

Clinical field development

Research

Division of basic and continuing education

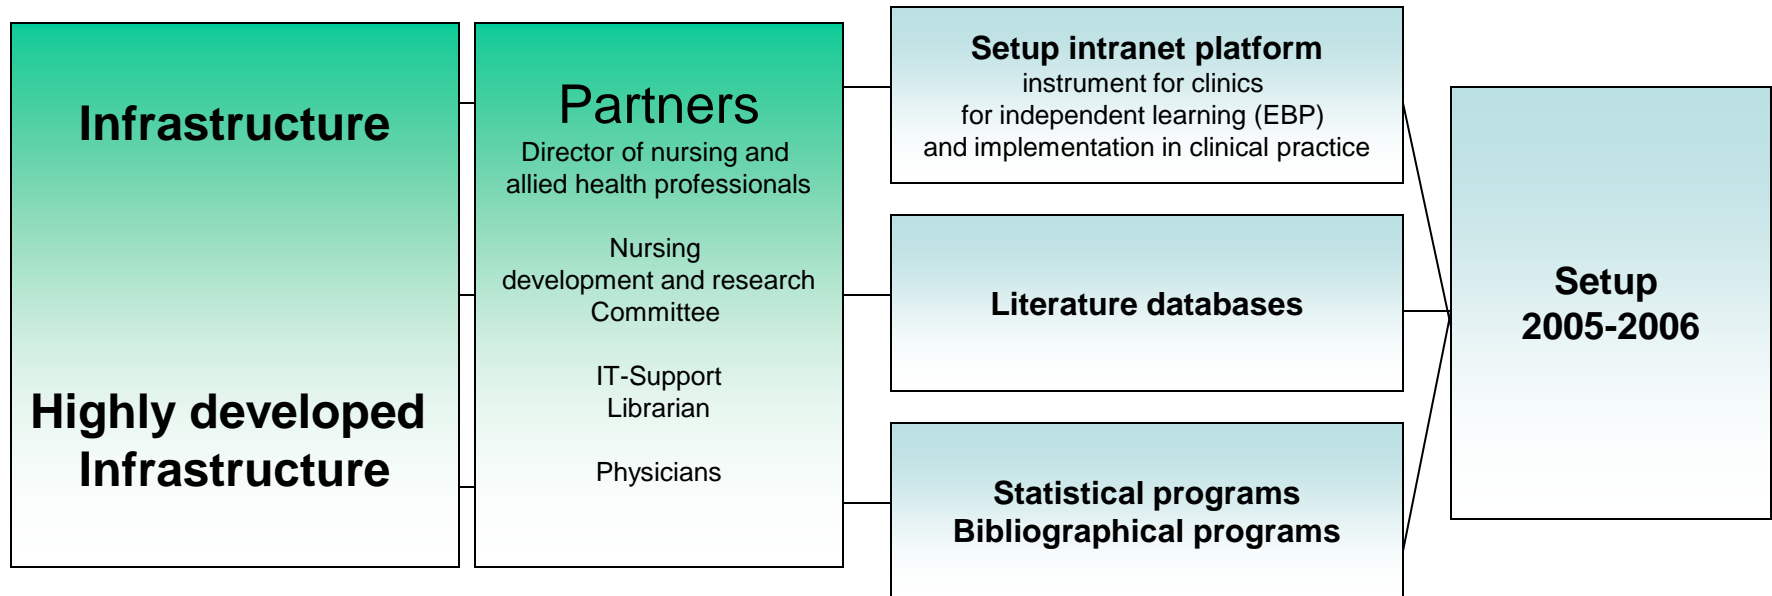

Cross-linking for the centralized and decentralized support

Continuing education

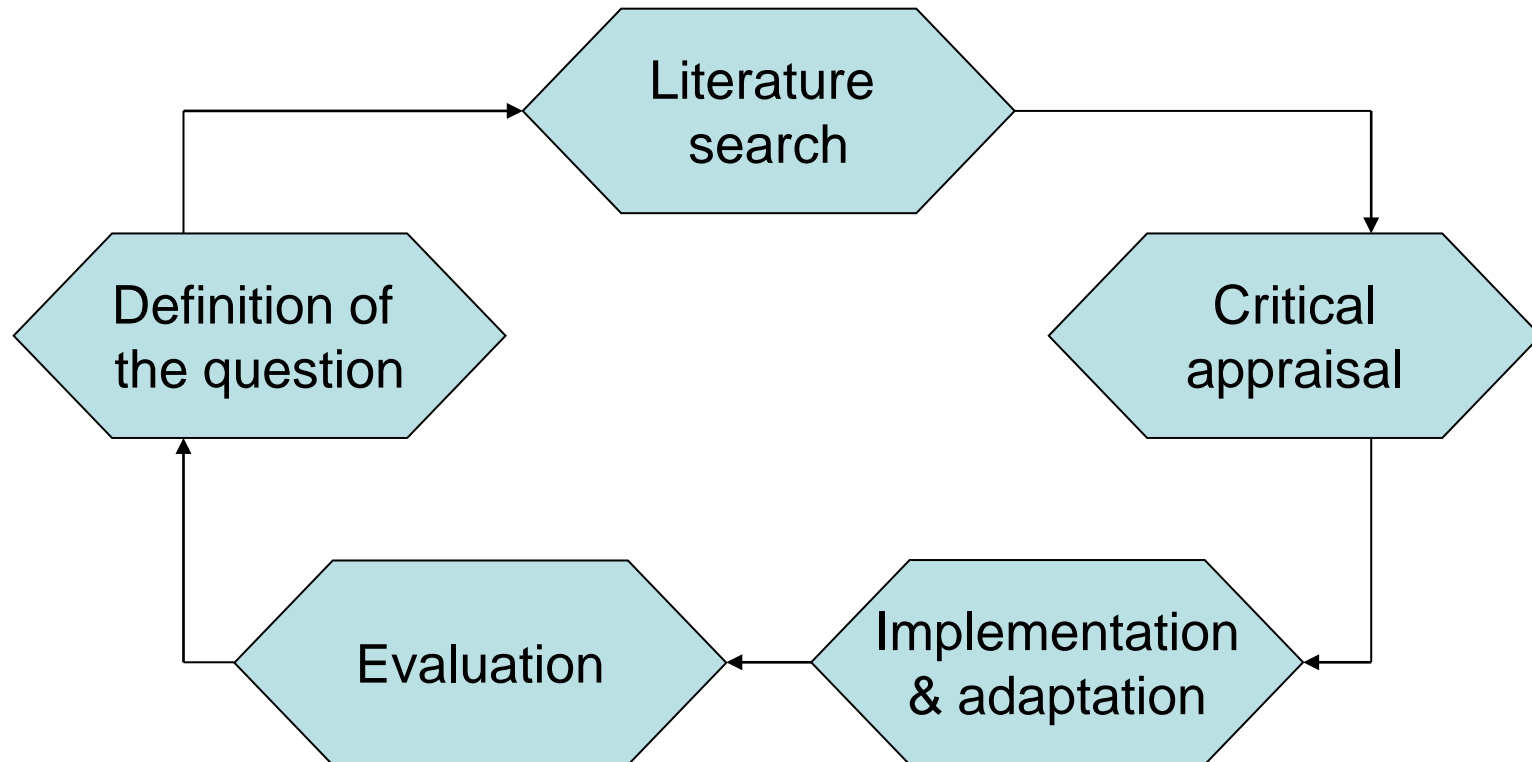

Quality

Evaluation

Organization development

EBP steps

Conclusions

- supportive infrastructure
- development of competencies
- useful tools and links
- bottom-up strategy

